The completion of a dream...

For decades officials at the University of Southern California had a dream about creating a place where students, alumni, friends and community members could gather together to share the Trojan spirit. The long-awaited dream became a reality with the opening of the Galen Center for the 2006-07 season. Trojan fans can now watch their men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams compete in USC's spectacular on-campus facility.

The Galen Center also hosts concerts, family shows and pageants, summer sports camps, commencement ceremonies, community gatherings, lectures and meetings, middle school and high school athletic events...and much more!

The center includes a 255,000-square-foot arena with 10,258 seats to support USC men's and women's basketball and volleyball, and a 45,000-square-foot pavilion that includes four practice courts and offices.

The Galen Center - USC's spectacular basketball and volleyball home!

GALEN CENTER FACT SHEET

Galen Center:

The center consists of a 255,000 square-foot arena with 10,258 seats.

General facilities include:

- Athletic Department Hall of Fame
- Founder's Banquet Room
- USC auxiliary ticket office
- Concession stands
- Athletic merchandise store

Team facilities include:

- Locker rooms for USC men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams
- Locker rooms for visiting teams
- Weight room
- Medical training room

Athletic Pavilion:

The 45,000 square-foot pavilion is attached to the Galen Center by an atrium and includes four practice courts, coaches' offices and administrative offices.

Parking:

A 1,200 space parking structure between the Radisson Hotel and Flower Street has been built. Additional parking is provided in Parking Structure "X" (PSX) at McCarthy Way and Figueroa Street, Parking Structure "D" (PSD) on campus at the corner of Jefferson and Figueroa (behind the Davidson Conference Center) and in the 1,900-space University Parking Center at Jefferson Boulevard and Hope Street, a one-block walk to the Galen Center.

ou, a Trustee of the University and Graduate of the USC School of Law, has had a lifelong devotion to Trojan Athletics.
In addition, Galens donated the Galen Athletic Court and have been benefactors of the USC School of Fine Arts.

JIM STERKEL COURT

Jim Sterkel played center for USC during the 1956 and 1957 seasons, including winning the most improved player award as a senior when he averaged 9.6 points and 8.6 rebounds per game. Sterkel grew up in Alhambra, Calif. and attended Fullerton JC before transfering to USC for his junior and senior seasons. At Fullerton JC, he was an All-Southern California JC Center selection and ran the hurdles in track. His daughter Jill was the first female swimmer to qualify for four Olympic games, where she was multi-medal winner. She swam collegiately at Texas and then coached at Texas following her swimming career. The naming of the court to honor Jim Sterkel was made possible by a donation from an anonymous classmate.

The late Lou Galen sitting in his customary baseline seat. It was through his generous donation that the dream of a new USC arena became a reality. The spectacular Galen Center arena bears his name for all his efforts.

PREVIOUS HOME COURTS:

Before the Galen Center opened for the 2007 campaign the Los Angeles Sports Arena had been USC's home since the 1959 season, but it was not the only place USC has played home games. Due to scheduling conflicts and repairs due to earthquake damage, since 1959 USC has also played "home games" at Loyola Marymount, Los Angeles State College/Cal State L.A., Long Beach Arena, the Forum, Cal State Dominguez, the Lyon Center and Staples Center. USC played 22 "home games" away from the Sports Arena in the 23 seasons prior to the opening of the Galen Center. The Trojans have played home games in 13 places prior (according to records dating back to the 1927-28 season):

Shrine Auditorium
Olympic Auditorium
Pan-Pacific Auditorium
USC Gymnasium
Long Beach City College Gym
Loyola Marymount
Los Angeles St. College/CSULA

Galen Center

USC has posted a strong home record in the 18-year history of the Galen Center. With increased support from the USC fans, the Trojans look to make their beautiful arena one of the toughest places for an opponent on the West coast. USC's all-time record at the Galen Center is 212-84 with a 105-25 record in non-conference games.

New-Look Trojans Hope to Make Waves This Season

The Trojans are entering their first season under new head coach Eric Musselman with a virtually new look roster. Musselman brings extensive and respectable coaching experience to Los Angeles, previously serving as head coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks men's basketball team. Will Conroy and Quincy Pondexter join Musselman's staff after previously serving as assistant coaches for Washington State's men's basketball team. Todd Lee, Michael Musselman and Anthony Ruta complete the Trojan coaching staff, all having previously worked under Musselman at Arkansas.

Despite a tumultuous 2023-24 season, the Trojans finished with a formidable record at Galen Center - going 9-6 at home. In the past five seasons, USC has maintained a strong home court advantage - going 64-15 at Galen Center in that span.

The new-look 2024-25 USC squad consists of 16 new faces and two returning members of last year's team - including 11 Trojan newcomers that were recruited from the transfer portal. The Trojans are the most experienced Power 5 team in college basketball based on minutes played per game last season (327.6). Also, USC's transfer class combined to average almost 150 points per game last season - the most incoming points of any transfer class in the nation.

Senior forward Saint Thomas (6-7, 220) led this year's Trojan transfer class last season in points per game with 19.7 while playing at Northern Colorado. That mark ranked 19th in the entire country for points per game in 2023-24. Thomas nearly averaged a double-double for the Bears, collecting 9.8 rebounds a game while adding 4.2 assists. The Nebraska native recorded 19 double-doubles in 2023-24 after spending two seasons on Loyola Chicago's roster. Junior guard Desmond Claude (6-6, 205) landed in Los Angeles after two years at Xavier. Claude made a huge leap in production after his freshman year - going from 4.7 points per game to 16.6 points per game. Claude also saw a production increase in his rebounding and assist numbers last season, winning the Big East Most Improved Player award.

The Trojans brought in a wealth of experience for the backcourt. Graduate transfer Clark Slajchert (6-1, 170) comes from Penn with strong shooting numbers. He shot 42.2 percent from behind the three-point line in 2023-24. Slajchert is one of four Trojan transfers to have accumulated over 1,000 points in their collegiate careers. Grad transfer Bryce Pope (6-3, 185) also reached that milestone during his four years at UC San Diego. In the last two seasons, Pope averaged 18.3 points per game in 62 games and was named to All-Big West teams in 2023 and 2024. Fellow grad transfer Bryce Pope (6-3, 185) also reached that milestone during his four years at UC San Diego. In the last two seasons, Pope averaged 18.3 points per game in 62 games and was named to two All-Big West teams in 2023 and 2024.

Grad transfer guard Chibuzo Agbo (6-7, 225) brings a lot of shooting to this Trojan team. In 2023-24, Agbo shot nearly 41 percent from behind the three-point line during his second season at Boise State. He enters this season with 923 career collegiate points over three seasons - two with Boise State and one with Texas Tech. Wesley Yates III (6-4, 200) transferred from Washington after not registering playing time for the Huskies his freshman year in 2023-24 (injury related). Coming out of high school in Texas, Yates was regarded as the No. 37 prospect in ESPN's Top 100 list for the 2023 graduating class. Kevin Patton Jr. (6-8, 200) is another sophomore guard who transferred to

TERRANCE WILLIAMS II

CHIBUZO AGBO

DESMOND CLAUDE

USC. During his freshman year at the University of San Diego, Patton averaged almost 10 points per game, 4.4 rebounds per game and 2.4 assists per game. Patton proved to be a huge defensive impact for the Toreros, averaging 2.6 steals and blocks per game last season.

USC also recruited imposing big men from the transfer portal. Grad transfer forward Rashaun Agee (6-8, 225) nearly averaged a double-double last season with the Bowling Green Falcons. Agee averaged 13.3 points per game while adding 9.9 rebounds a night. Agee racked up 17 double-doubles in 33 games last season - ranking 12th in the nation. Agee has managed to score 1,340 total points in his collegiate career. Graduate forward Josh Cohen (6-10, 250) joins the Trojans after spending last season at UMass and three seasons at Saint Francis in Pennsylvania. Cohen notched 15.6 points per game on 54 percent shooting last season for the Minutemen. Cohen finished 2023-24 in the Atlantic 10 Conference's top-7 in scoring, rebounding, and field goal percentage.
The Trojans added some versatile wings to complement this new look roster. Graduate forward Terrance Williams II (6-7, 225) brings valuable Big Ten experience to the Trojans, as he previously spent four seasons at the University of Michigan. Williams managed to score double-digits 24 times last season for the Wolverines. Graduate lefty forward Matt Knowling (6-6, 200) brings needed shooting efficiency to this Trojan squad, making 56.7% of his shots last season at Yale. He was a vital part of last year's Yale team that beat Auburn in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Australian forward Harrison Hornery (6-10, 230) returns to USC's frontcourt for his senior season. Hornery is an imposing force from the forward position as a predominantly strong rebounder and with his three-point shooting. Senior guard JD Plough (6-3, 180) also returns to the Trojans after joining the team last season and spending two seasons at Los Angeles Harbor College.

USC also brought in new talent from the high school level. Freshman combo guard Isaiah Elohim (6-5, 200) joins the Trojans as a consensus top-50 recruit in the 2024 graduating class and a top-10 recruit in the state of California. The California native played his senior season at Sierra Canyon High - where he averaged 12.8 points, 5.6 rebounds, and 1.1 assists a game. Freshman forward Jalen Shelley (6-8, 190) enhances this year's Trojan freshman class with his ability to slash at the rim with his size. Shelley was the number 3 player coming out of Missouri in the 2024 class as he helped Link Academy to a semi-final berth in the 2024 Chipotle Nationals.

The Trojans complete the squad with three walk-ons. Kallai Patton (6-4, 180) is a freshman guard who joins his brother Kevin as a part of the USC men's basketball team. Patton averaged 10 points, 8.1 rebounds, 6.9 assists, 3.5 steals and 2.0 blocks per game last season as a senior at Rancho Christian High in Temecula, Calif. Avand Dorian (6-3, 195) is a sophomore walk-on in his first season as a member of the team. Dorian averaged 23.7 points, 9.3 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game during his senior season at AGBU MDS High in Los Angeles in 2023. Jonah Goorin (6-3, 175) rounds off this year's squad. Goorin is a freshman walk-on who averaged 10.7 points and 5.5 rebounds per game at Sacred Heart Cathedral High in San Francisco.

USC will hope to make its presence well-known in its inaugural year in the Big Ten conference with this new look squad and Musselman at the helm.

USC MEN'S BASKETBALL COACHES & STAFF

2024-25

ERIC MUSSELMAN

HEAD COACH • FIRST YEAR

Eric Musselman was named the USC Men's Basketball Head Coach, Charles Griffin Cale Director of Athletics Jennifer Cohen announced on April 4, 2024.

Eric Musselman, 59, is a proven winner who has excelled at both the collegiate and professional levels, most recently at Arkansas where he led the Razorbacks to a 111-59 record in five seasons as the leader of the program. The 111 wins in that stretch were the 13th-most among all Power 6 conference teams. In eight of his nine seasons as a collegiate head coach at Nevada (2016-19) and Arkansas (2020-24), his teams won 20 or more games and he has compiled a 221-93 record for a 70.4 winning percentage. Musselman has the 10th-best winning percentage of all active Division I coaches who have coached at least nine seasons. Musselman has over 30 years of coaching experience, including 22 years as a professional and collegiate head coach.

Arkansas went 16-17 during the 2023-24 season, snapping a streak of six consecutive seasons of a Musselman-coached team reaching the NCAA Tournament. In his first season as a collegiate head coach in 2016 at Nevada, he led the Wolf Pack to the CBI title, then he led his teams into the NCAA Tournament six-straight times from 2017-2023. From 2021-23 he led Arkansas to three consecutive Sweet Sixteen appearances, one of only three programs in the country to accomplish that feat.

Musselman has had at least one player selected in each of the last five NBA Drafts, the third-best active streak among NCAA coaches. He has had seven players drafted and has had 11 of his former players since 2019 reach the NBA, including lottery picks Moses Moody No. 14 to Golden State in 2021 and Anthony Black No. 6 to Orlando in 2023. Musselman has also helped develop four All-Americans, two Conference Players of the Years, three Conference Sixth Man of the Years and 21 All-Conference players. Three times Musselman has coached one of his players to league scoring titles.

Prior to entering the collegiate head coaching ranks, Musselman was a head coach for seven professional teams, including two seasons with the Golden State Warriors (2002-04) and one with the Sacramento Kings (2006-07). He won over 500 games as a professional head coach with an overall winning percentage of .634 (503-291).

His exciting brand of basketball and infectious personality invigorated the Razorback program in his five seasons leading the program. His teams at Arkansas averaged 76.9 points per game, 10th-best among Power 6 schools in the five-year period and led all Division I schools in free throws made per game (17.1). He led Arkansas to heights not seen since the mid-1990s. The Razorback played in three-straight Sweet Sixteens for the first time since 1994-96, while his teams advanced to the Elite 8 in both the 2021 and 2022 seasons. After reaching the NCAA Elite 8 in year two, the Razorback fans responded by selling-out Bud Walton Arena for the entire season before the first game in each of the last three seasons.

His proven style and success led the Razorbacks to land the No. 5 recruiting class in the nation for the 2020-21 season, highlighted by future NBA lottery pick Moses Moody, and the consensus No. 2 recruiting class for the 2022-23 season, including five-stars Nick Smith Jr., Anthony Black and Jordan Walsh with all six recruits landing on the ESPN and SI top 100 lists. In addition, Musselman has been the standard-bearer negotiating the new landscape of NCAA basketball by landing the some of the top transfer players in the nation in each of the last three seasons.

Numerous individual honors have accompanied the teams' success under Musselman. Nevada players Caleb Martin and his twin brother Cody are in their fourth NBA season and Jalen Harris was selected in the second round of the 2020 NBA Draft by Toronto. At Arkansas, Isaiah Joe was drafted in the second round in 2020 by Philadelphia. His Razorback teammate Mason Jones was the 2020 SEC co-Player of the Year and, after signing as a free agent, has played in the NBA with the Rockets, 76ers and Lakers. In 2021, Moody became the first "one-and-done" player in Razorback history as he was an NBA Lottery pick (14th overall) by the Golden State Warriors. During the 2022-23 season, Stanley Umude made his NBA debut with the Detroit Pistons. In the summer of 2023, Arkansas had three "one-and-dones" as Black was selected sixth in the NBA Draft (the second-highest Razorback ever selected), Smith was a first-round pick and Walsh was an early second-round pick. Arkansas tied UCLA for the most draft picks (3) and was the only program to have three players selected within the first 40 picks.

Caleb Martin was a two-time All-America selection (2018 and '19) at Nevada while Jones (2020), Moody (2021) and JD Notae (2022) earned All-America honors at Arkansas.

As the head coach at Nevada from 2016-19, he led the Wolf Pack to Mountain West regular season titles in each of his last three season. The Wolf Pack won the CBI (College Basketball Invitational) postseason tournament in his first year as head coach while adding a Mountain West tournament title in 2017 to secure the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2007. He then led Nevada to at-large berths to the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Tournament as a seventh seed each time.

In addition to his teams' success, numerous individual honors were bestowed upon his players. Caleb Martin was a two-time All-America selection, a two-time district Player of the Year honoree and was named the 2018 Mountain West Player of the Year. Overall, 13 All-Mountain West honors were earned by Wolf Pack players over Musselman's four seasons. His 2018 and 2019 teams won 29 games each season, to tie for the school record for victories in a season. The 2019 team spent 16 weeks ranked inside the top 10 and all season ranked inside the top 20. The 2018 team reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, just the second time in school history. Musselman earned four Coach of the Year honors in 2018 after the Pack's successful season, including MW coaches and media, USBWA District VIII and NABC District 17. In his first season at Nevada, Musselman transformed the culture of the men's basketball team. Musselman led the Wolf Pack to a 24-14 record and the CBI Championship, defeating Morehead State 85-82 in overtime. BleacherReport.com named him their Mountain West Coach of the Year as the Pack's 15-win improvement from nine wins to 24 ranked the team as the sixth-most improved NCAA I squad in the country.

Prior to Nevada, Musselman spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona State and LSU. In 2013 the Sun Devils advanced to the second round of the NIT and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2014. The 2015 Tiger squad also advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2013 ASU squad improved by 12 wins and advanced to postseason play for the first time in three years. He was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2013-14 season. While at ASU, Musselman coached 2013 second-round NBA selection Carrick Felix, 2012-13 Pac-12 co-Freshman of the Year Jahii Carson and Jordan Bachynski who led the nation in blocks in 2013-14.

In his only season at LSU, he coached two first team All-SEC selections in Jarrell Martin and Jordan Mickey. Mickey was also selected to the SEC All-Defensive team.

Musselman has been a head coach in the CBA, the United States Basketball League (USBL) and the NBADL along with the two NBA head coaching stops. His teams have collected six division titles and have advanced to the postseason seven times. He coached 24 players that went on to play in the NBA. Five times he was named CBA all-star coach. In addition to mentoring players to NBA careers, three of his former assistant coaches went on to become NBA head coaches, Jim Boylan (Chicago Bulls), Scotty Brooks (Washington Wizards) and David Fitzdale (New York Knicks).

Musselman's first head coaching job came at the age of 23 when he was hired by the Rapid City Thrillers of the Continental Basketball Association in 1989. He was the youngest coach in CBA history and the fastest to win 100 games.

He led the USBL Florida Sharks to a 53-3 record in two seasons and a league championship which earned him USBL Coach of the Year honors.

After working as an assistant under Doc Rivers and Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly, he was named the head coach of the Golden State Warriors in 2002. He led the Warriors to 38 wins, a team-high in more than 10 years, and was runner-up in the NBA Coach of Year voting. He also coached the Warriors during the 2003-04 season.

Following a year as an assistant with the Memphis Grizzlies under Mike Fratello, he coached the Sacramento Kings for the 2006-07 season.

Musselman made his first stop in Reno for the 2010-11 season when he was head coach for the NBA D-League's Bighorns and led them to their first Western Conference title in franchise history.

Musselman worked as an analyst on radio and television prior to coaching the Reno Bighorns (2010-11) and LA D-Fenders (2011-12) of the NBADL. In 2012 he earned Coach of the Year honors.

While coaching the Reno Bighorns in NBADL he worked with Jeremy Lin, Danny Green and Steve Novak who were called up to the NBA. Gerald Green, Malcom Thomas, Darius Morris, Jamario Moon and Courtney Fortson earned trips to the NBA when he coached them with the D-Fenders.

Musselman has experience coaching international basketball having served as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team (2010-11), The US and Team China in the Adidas Global Experience (2009, 2010) and The Venezuela National Team (2011-13).
Born in Ashland, Ohio he attended high school in Brecksville south of Cleveland. He attended the University of San Diego and helped the Toreros to a 24-6 record as a senior and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. While at USD he was named to the West Coast Conference All-Academic team three times and the Toreros played in two NCAA Tournaments.

Musselman is married to Danyelle Sargent Musselman who has worked at ESPN, Fox Sports and the NFL Network as a broadcaster. Musselman has two sons Michael and Matthew. He and Danyelle have a daughter, Mariah.

Musselman's father Bill was also an NBA head coach and they were the first father-son combination to become head coaches in the NBA.

WILL CONROY

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR

Will Conroy is in his first season as an assistantcoach with the USC men's basketball staff. Conroy was hired by head coach Eric Musselman in April of 2024 after nine seasons on the men's basketball coaching staff at Washington. He served the last two seasons as the associate head coach at Washington under Mike Hopkins.

During his time on the Washington staff the Huskies went to the NCAA Tournament once, the NIT Tournament twice and won the 2018-19 Pac-12 regular season title. He coached four McDonald's All-Americans and has mentored five players that have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Some of the NBA talent he helped develop while at Washington includes Markelle Fultz, Jaden McDaniels, Dejounte Murray, Jaylen Nowell, Isaiah Stewart and Mattise Thybulle.

Conroy played for Washington from 2001-05. He initially joined the program as a walk-on, but went on to finish as the all-time assists leader in program history with 515. He also still holds the senior record for assists (219) and finished third all-time in career assists per game at 4.3.

Conry was the first Husky to top the 200-assist mark during a season and the first to surpass 100 assists in three different seasons. Additionally, he was the 23rd player in Pac-10 history to reach the 500-assist plateau and the 18th to also score 1,000 points. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 accolades as a senior and was voted the team's MVP along with serving as the team captain during his junior and senior seasons.

While at Washington, Conroy helped the Huskies reach the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years and earn the program's first No. 1 seed, while also making their first Sweet 16 appearance since 1998. Additionally, Conroy led the Huskies to consecutive Pac-12 Tournament Championship games in 2004 and 2005 and took that trophy home as a senior after UW defeated No. 8 Arizona. Washington's 29 wins that season also tied the 67-year-old school record.

Following his collegiate career, Conroy spent seven years playing for various teams in the NBA and overseas before taking a front office position for the Minnesota Timberwolves. During his pro career, Conroy was given the 2009 NBA D-League Sportsmanship Award and saw action for the Grizzlies, Clippers, Rockets and Timberwolves.

Conroy graduated from Garfield High School in Seattle, Wash. and led the program to four-straight league championships. The Bulldogs boasted a 100-15 record during his prep career and he picked up All-King County First Team honors during his senior season after averaging 14.5 points and 3.6 assists.

Conroy has two children, William Jr. and Madison and is married to Tanika Latte.

QUINCY PONDEXTER

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR

Quincy Pondexter was named an assistant coach with the USC men's basketball program by head coach Eric Musselman on May 16, 2024. The eight-year NBA veteran served as an assistant coach at his alma mater Washington for the 2022-24 seasons, where he worked along current USC assistant coach Will Conroy.

Following college, Pondexter was selected as the No. 26 pick in the 2010 NBA Draft by Oklahoma City and was traded to the New Orleans Hornets. His NBA career included stops with New Orleans (2010-11, 2015), Memphis (2011-15), Chicago (2017-18) and San Antonio (2018-19). He played in 355 games, making 48 starts and averaging 4.5 points per game. He was traded from Memphis back to New Orleans during the 2015 season and averaged a career-best 9.0 points in 45 games (28 starts) for the Pelicans. Pondexter's team reached the NBA playoffs five seasons. He played in 15 games during the 2013 postseason with Memphis, averaging 8.9 points and helping lead them to the Western Conference finals.

The Fresno, Calif. native played collegiately at Washington from 2007-10 and scored 1,786 points, which rank fifth on the Huskies' all-time scoring list. Pondexter scored 20 or more points 30 times in his career and posted 83 double-figure scoring games in 136 games played.

Pondexter accumulated numerous awards during his career being named First Team All-Pac-10, NABC All-District First Team, USBWA All-District, AP All-American Honorable Mention, a FoxSports.com Fourth Team All-American and won a Pac-10 record five Player of the Week honors in one season (2010). The forward was also a member of the 2009 Team USA squad that won the bronze medal at the World University Games.

The Washington squads had unprecedented success with Pondexter on the roster as they won the Pac-10 Regular season Championship (2009) outright for the first time since 1953 and made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2005-06 season. Washington made two-straight NCAA appearances when Pondexter was the team captain, making the second round in 2009 and the Sweet 16 in 2010 while recording back-to-back 26-win seasons.

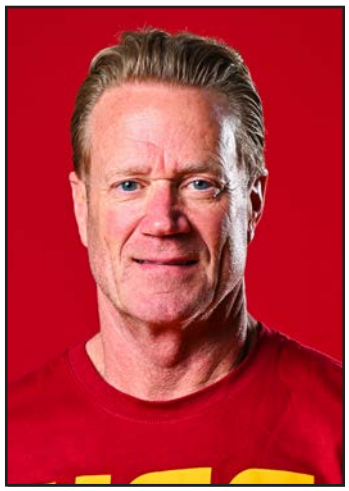
As a senior, Washington also won the Pac-10 Tournament Championship in a dramatic 79-75 victory over California where Pondexter had a team-high 18 points. He finished his senior season averaging a team-high 19.3 points which ranks fourth all-time. Pondexter led the team in scoring, rebounding (7.4) and free throw percentage (82.7) during the 2009-10 campaign while putting up 17 games of 20 or more points scored.

While playing in the NBA, Pondexter started his coaching path with the AAU teams California United in 2015 and Las Vegas Elite developing youth basketball players and helping them prepare for collegiate ball.

Pondexter starred at San Joaquin Memorial High school in Fresno, Calif. where he averaged 23 points, seven rebounds and six assists per game during his senior season. He was a highly touted recruit being ranked in the top 50 in the country by all the recruiting sites. He was the MVP of the Pangos All-American Camp and an All-Star game starter at the Adidas Superstar Camp in 2004 and 2005.

TODD LEE

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR



Todd Lee is his first season as an assistant coach at USC, being named to his current position by USC head coach Eric Musselman. Lee worked with Musselman at Arkansas the last two seasons, first as director of scouting and last season as assistant coach.

The former South Dakota head coach Lee has had a relationship with Musselman which has spanned 30-plus years. Lee was on Musselman's staff with the Rapid City Thrillers from 1992-94 after serving three years (1989-92) as an assistant coach under legendary San Diego head coach Hank Egan, who was Musselman's coach with the Toreros. Also, Lee mentored 2021-22 Razorback Stanley Umude to three All-Summit League honors while playing at South Dakota.

In his first year with the Arkansas program, the Razorbacks reached the NCAA Sweet 16 and saw three players – Anthony Black, Nick Smith Jr., and Jordan Walsh – selected within the first 40 picks of the 2023 NBA Draft, while consensus All-SEC pick Ricky Council IV signed with the Philadelphia 76ers.

Lee, a two-time conference Coach of the Year and finalist for national Coach of the Year, spent four seasons as head coach at the South Dakota and has 12 years of collegiate head coaching experience to his credit. He was 66-52 at South Dakota (2018-22) and was 154-81 in eight years at Kentucky Wesleyan (2005-13). Lee has also been an assistant coach at Southwestern CC (1986-89), Cal State Bakersfield (1994-97), UC Irvine (1997-2005) and Grand Canyon (2013-18).

Lee led South Dakota to a 19-12 record in 2021-22, including a 12-5 mark down the stretch after a two-week shutdown of the program due to COVID, while reaching the Summit League semi-finals. Mason Archambault and Kruz Perrott-Hunt were named second team All-Summit League while Tasos Kamateros received honorable mention honors and Boogie Anderson was voted to the league's inaugural All-Defensive team.

In his third season at South Dakota (2020-21), Lee guided a trio of Coyotes to All-Summit League honors in Umude. Lee also earned the 2021 Summit League Coach of the Year honors while Plitzuweit earned the Newcomer of the Year honor as well as a spot on the All-Newcomer team. The Coyotes started conference play 9-0 for the first time since the 1992-93 season and reeled off 10 straight wins for its longest streak since the 2009-10 campaign.

In year two, he guided Tyler Hagedorn to first team All-Summit League honors after coming off a redshirt season. Umude earned second team All-Summit League honors. Umude also became the first Coyote to garner preseason Summit League Player of the Year honors.

As a team, the Coyotes recorded 20 wins in the 2019-20 season and had an eight-game overall win streak as well as a seven-game conference win streak, the longest such streaks since joining the Summit League. The Yotes finished as one of 11 teams in the nation that had five starters average 10 points or more on the season. In addition, USD finished the season ranked sixth in the nation in both FG percentage and 3-point percentage while ranking fourth in the nation with 1.021 points per possession on the season.

In his first year at the helm of USD, he guided Umude to first team All-Summit League honors after increasing his points per game output by 13.3 points over his freshman campaign to 14.4 points per contest. That number led the nation for all sophomores over their rookie season. As a team, Lee's defense led the Summit League with the fewest points allowed per game at just 71.2 while the Yotes ranked sixth in the nation in fewest turnovers.

Prior to South Dakota, Lee spent five seasons as the associate head coach at Grand Canyon University, helping the Antelopes to a 103-58 record. He served under former NBA All-Star Dan Majerle and the program accumulated 81 wins during the four-year transition to Division I, beginning in Lee's first year with GCU. The number of wins is the most by any program that has made the leap into Division I.

In his final season at Grand Canyon (2017-18), the 'Lopes totaled 22 wins for the third-straight year and advanced to the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship game. GCU finished in the top three of the WAC in all five seasons with Lee and made four consecutive postseason appearances.

In his five years at GCU, Lee mentored five first team all-WAC selections, four second team honorees, four all-defensive team selections and a WAC Freshman of the Year. Additionally, Josh Braun, a three-time all-conference honoree, was a three-time Academic All-American, including two first-team nods.

Lee came to Grand Canyon after eight seasons at Kentucky Wesleyan. After taking over a program with limited scholarships due to NCAA sanctions, Lee had only 20 wins in his first two seasons with the Panthers. However, he went 24-8 in year three and made the first of five consecutive NCAA Division II tournament appearances. The highlight was the 2012 campaign when Lee led Kentucky Wesleyan to a trip to the Sweet 16 and a No. 1 national ranking during the year. The program ended the season ranked in the top 25 on four occasions and the Panthers averaged 22 wins over Lee's final six season with .736 win percentage (134-48).

Lee coached five first team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) selections and 14 total all-conference performers including Jeff Fahnbulleh, the 2007-08 GLVC Player of the Year. Lee was named the 2008 GLVC Coach of the Year in 2008, the NABC Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 2010 and a finalist for the prestigious Clarence 'Big House' Gaines Division II National Coach of the Year in 2012.

He spent eight seasons (1987-05) as an assistant coach at UC-Irvine with the final four as associate head coach under Pat Douglass. The Anteaters claimed a pair of Big West Conference Championships and captured three-straight 20-win seasons for the first time in program history. UC-Irvine also played in the National Invitation Tournament in 2001 and 2002.

Lee also served as an assistant under Douglass for three years at CSU-Bakersfield, compiling a 75-16 record and capturing the 1997 NCAA Division II National Championship. In all three years (1994-97), the Roadrunners advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Lee spent two years (1992-94) as an assistant coach for the Rapid City Thrillers of the CBA under Musselman. While with the Thrillers, Lee organized and coached the first CBA or NBA professional basketball team to tour China and compete against the Chinese National Army, posting a 5-0 record in 1992.

Lee's coaching career started as an assistant at Southwestern College (1986-89) before being named assistant coach at the University of San Diego (1989-1992).
A native of Huron, South Dakota, Lee graduated from South Dakota in 1986 with a degree in business administration. He received his master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific in 2003.

Lee and his wife Brooke have six children - Carson, Jackson, Peyton, Georgia, Emi and Anna.

MICHAEL MUSSELMAN

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR

Michael Musselman is in his first season as an assistant coach at USC, after five successful seasons at Arkansas. He wore many hats in his five seasons with the Razorbacks, serving as an assistant coach during the 2023-24 season. He was initially hired at Arkansas as director of recruiting before the 2019-20 season, added the title of assistant director of basketball operations for the 2020-21 season and was promoted to director of basketball operations for the 2022-23 season. He was elevated to an assistant coach position prior to last season. Throughout his tenure, Musselman spearheaded the Arkansas men's basketball recruiting efforts.

In 2022, Musselman helped Arkansas land the No.2-ranked recruiting class in the country, with three five-star athletes and six of its players ranking within the top 100 in the country. Musselman brought in multiple top recruits during his tenure at Arkansas including four McDonald's All-Americans. Among the prospects recruited under Musselman and the Arkansas staff are Nick Smith Jr., Jordan Walsh, and Anthony Black, all of whom were selected within the top 40 of the 2023 NBA draft. Arkansas was one of two college programs to have three players selected in the 2023 NBA Draft and the only one with two or more players selected in the top 40.

The first recruiting class at Arkansas was the class of 2020 which was ranked No. 5 in the nation by ESPN.com. The class featured top 40 prospects Moses Moody and Khalen Robinson and a pair of four-star recruits in Davonte Davis and Jaylin Williams, co-Arkansas HS Players of the Year. He also helped Arkansas land three top graduate transfers to begin Arkansas' dominance of the transfer portal. Moody went on to earn SEC Freshman of the Year, first-team All-SEC and All-America honors. Moody was selected with the No. 14 pick by the Golden State Warriors in the 2021 NBA Draft, becoming Arkansas' first "one-and-done player."

In 2021-22, Musselman helped Arkansas bring in four transfers which played key roles in the Razorbacks reaching their second straight Elite 8 and a No. 8 final ranking in the Coaches Poll. During his time at Arkansas, he helped propel the Razorbacks to levels they had not reached in 25 years, making back-to-back Elite 8 appearances, a Sweet 16 run and winning 20 or more games four times.

In addition to his growth while with the Razorbacks, Musselman also served on the staff for the Cleveland Cavaliers 2023 NBA summer league team, who won the NBA Summer League championship.

Prior to Arkansas, Musselman spent the 2018-19 season as a graduate assistant at Nevada, helping the team win 29 games, a Mountain West Championship and earn an NCAA Tournament berth. He previously served as a student manager at his alma mater, the University of San Diego. In his four years with the Toreros, he assisted the team in practice sessions, scouting reports, film editing and statistical analysis.

Musselman continues the coaching legacy that was started by his grandfather, Bill Musselman and continued on by his father and USC head coach Eric Musselman. Michael received his bachelor's degree in communications and a minor in business administration from San Diego in 2018. He completed his master's degree in educational leadership from Nevada in the summer of 2019.

ANTHONY RUTA

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR

Anothony Ruta is in his first season as an assistant coach at USC, after spending the last five seasons at Arkansas under Eric Musselman. Ruta served the last two seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas, after working as the men's basketball director of operations for three seasons.

Ruta helped Arkansas reach three straight NCAA Sweet 16's, including Elite 8 berths in 2021 and 2022, and post an SEC-best 95 wins from 2020-23. Overall, in his nine years with Musselman at both Nevada and Arkansas, the programs have won at least 20 games eight times while playing in the postseason seven times, including four Sweet 16 appearances.

In addition to team success, Arkansas has produced the 2020 SEC Player of the Year in Mason Jones, 2020 NBA second-round draft pick Isaiah Joe, 2021 NBA lottery pick Moses Moody, 2022 All-American JD Notae and 2022 second-round draft pick Jaylin Williams. The 2022-23 freshman class, ranked No. 2 nationally, featured three McDonald's All-Americans in Anthony Black, Nick Smith Jr., and Jordan Walsh. All three were "one-and-dones" and all three were taken within the first 40 picks of the 2023 NBA Draft with Black going No. 6, Smith going No. 27 and Walsh going No. 38.

Ruta was also in charge of putting together the Razorbacks' schedules while at Arkansas. He consistently assembled a very competitive schedule for Arkansas to play which helped the program achieve postseason success. In his first season at Arkansas, the Razorbacks' schedule was ranked No. 25 by NCAA.net, with a nonconference rating of No. 12. The 2022-23 Arkansas schedule was ranked as the No. 2 strength of schedule in the nation, No. 3 nonconference RPI and the No. 4 nonconference strength of schedule.

At Nevada, Ruta was initially brought on to be the director of basketball operations before being elevated to assistant coach his last two seasons with the Wolf Pack (2016-17 and 2017-18). In his role as an assistant coach, his duties included scouting opponents, recruiting student-athletes and scheduling opponents.
In Ruta's four years at Nevada, the Wolf Pack won at least 24 games all four seasons (24, 28, 29 and 29), won three Mountain West regular-season titles, won one conference tournament championship, made three NCAA Tournament appearances – including a Sweet 16 berth, and won the 2016 CBI championship. Also, Ruta helped develop current NBA players Caleb and Cody Martin.

During his time as an assistant coach at Nevada, the Wolf Pack won 29 games each season – tying a school record and marking the program's best two-year run in school history. Nevada won the Mountain West championship twice and earned at-large berths to the NCAA Tournament each year. In his last season, Nevada was 29-5, was ranked among the nation's top 25 all season and finished 20th in the final AP poll/23rd in the USA Today Coaches poll. The previous year, Nevada reached the Sweet 16 for the second time in school history, went 29-8 and was ranked all but two weeks throughout the season before finishing 20th in the final Coaches poll/24th by AP.

In his first two seasons at Nevada, the Wolf Pack went 28-7 in 2015-16, won Mountain West regular-season and tournament titles and earned the program's first NCAA berth in 10 years. In his first year at Nevada, Ruta helped the Pack go from nine wins prior to his arrival to 24 in year one and Nevada won the CBI Championship, which was the first postseason championship by a Mountain West or Nevada team.

Prior to coming to Nevada, Ruta was an assistant coach with Fort Wayne Mad Ants of the NBA Development League. He assisted in all areas with Mad Ants which included in-game coaching and practice preparation. His primary responsibilities were defensive game planning. Working with the guards and wings he coached NBA veteran Dahntay Jones and D-League All-Star game MVP Andre Emmett.

Ruta began his coaching career at his alma mater, Arizona State, where he was a graduate assistant for two seasons. The Sun Devils advanced to the postseason both years playing in the NCAA and NIT Championships.

While at ASU he assisted in scouting and game preparation. Additional duties included assisting in scheduling, team workouts primarily with the guards, team travel and summer camps. He also oversaw the team managers, organized the recruiting database and served as the academics and facilities liaison.

As an undergraduate student at ASU, Ruta was the head student manager for two seasons. He assisted with the daily operations of the Sun Devils basketball program which included workouts. Additionally, he worked summer camps and organized the team managers.

Ruta received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English literature from ASU in 2012 and a Master of Education degree in higher education in 2014.

2023•2024 Season Review

game • one

Kansas State • 69
No. 21 USC • 82

Nov. 6 • T-Mobile Arena
Las Vegas, Nev.

Boogie Ellis scored 24 points and Isaiah Collier added 18 points in his collegiate debut as No. 21 USC Men's Basketball defeated Kansas State, 82-69, at the Hall of Fame Series Las Vegas on Nov. 6. Collier, the consensus No. 1 recruit in the 2023 class, scored 15 of his 18 in the first. He also had 6 assists in 25 minutes before fouling out. Kobe Johnson scored 12 of his 16 points in the second half and grabbed 8 boards. Joshua Morgan added 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting while blocking 5 shots. The win marked a sweep for USC in the Hall of Fame Series Las Vegas after the No. 21 Women of Troy upset. No. 7 Ohio State, 83-74, in the first session of the day-long event. After conceding 3 free throws to Kansas State to start the game, Collier's and-one play and a layup highlighted a 14-2 run that gave the Trojans their lead that stood the rest of the night. USC made 51.7 percent of its shots, while holding KSU to 31.0 percent shooting. Ellis surpassed 1,000 career points as a Trojan, entering the game only needing 4 points to reach the milestone.

Isaiah Collier scored 19 points, Oziyah Sellers a career-high 16 and No. 21 USC routed CSU Bakersfield 85-59 on Nov. 9 in the Trojans' home opener. USC set the tone in the first half, making its first 5 shots, shooting 59% from the floor and scoring 19 points off CSUB's turnovers to lead to a 47-23 at the break. CSUB improved its shooting to 45% in the second half, but it never made a dent in the deficit that ballooned to 27 points. DJ Rodman added 15 points and Joshua Morgan had 12 for the Trojans, who counted Chris Rock, Rodman's soccer pro sister Trinity and USC student Natalia Bryant among the crowd. Kaleb Higgins led the Roadrunners with 19 points. Boogie Ellis was one of five Trojans in double figures, scoring 11 points. USC scored 80 or more points in its first 2 games of the season for the first time since the 2016 season. USC's balanced attack saw 9 players score and 7 have at least 3 rebounds. Starting guard Kobe Johnson missed the game with left knee discomfort. USC improved to 23-5 in its last 28 home openers.

With captains and starting guards Boogie Ellis and Kobe Johnson out with leg injuries, USC's offense struggled to find its rhythm and the Trojans fell 70-60 at home to UC Irvine on Nov. 14. Isaiah Collier led USC with a career-high 23 points and Harrison Hornery came off the bench to score a career-best 17 points, and set career highs with 7 rebounds and 3 blocked shots. USC made only 28.8 percent of its shots, its lowest shooting percentage in a game since making 20.0 percent of its shots on Jan. 5, 2020 at Washington and it was USC's second-lowest shooting percentage in the last six seasons. USC trailed 29-26 at the half and the lead swelled to 10 points as UCI scored the first 7 points after the break. USC cut the lead to one at 61-60 with 2:49 remaining, but UCI scored the game's final 9 points. USC was 4-for-21 from 3-point range (19.0 percent), with all 4 3-pointers coming from Hornery. USC had 7 assists and 16 turnovers in the game. Justin Hohn of USC led all scorers with 25 points.

Boggie Ellis scored 28 points and Isaiah Collier added 24 to lead No. 16 USC to an 81-70 victory over Brown on Nov. 19. It wasn't easy, though. Ellis scored 16 points in the first half for the Trojans and was pivotal late in holding off the pesky Bears. He made a long 3-pointer off an inbounds pass by Harrison Homery right as the shot clock expired to give USC a 79-70 lead with 33 seconds left. A few moments earlier, Brown's Felix Kloman was called for a foul and technical foul. Ellis made his two free throws and Collier made the technical free throws to give the Trojans a 76-70 lead. Those free throws proved to be the difference. USC led by 15 points early, but Brown cut the lead to 3 points at halftime at 35-32 on a 3-pointer by Kloman at the buzzer. USC finished the first hald making 2 of its final 12 FG before the break. Kino Lilly Jr. made a 3-pointer to tie the game at 66 with 4:54 left, but USC finished on a 15-4 run. Lilly Jr. scored 24 points to lead the Bears. USC made 12 of its 24 3-point attempts and Ellis made 6, to tie his career high for 3-pointers made in a game (5th time). It was the first-ever meeting between USC and Brown in men's basketball.

Rady Children's Invitational

Boogie Ellis scored 22 points in his homecoming and Joshua Morgan blocked a school-record 10 shots for No. 23 USC, which blew most of a 20-point lead before beating Seton Hall 71-63 in the Rady Children's Invitational on Thanksgiving (Nov. 23). Ellis, a fifth-year senior, played at Mission Bay High before starting his college career at Memphis. He scored five points during an 11-0 run that helped the Trojans take a 32-22 halftime lead. Ellis and Isaiah Collier each hit a 3-pointer in the first minute of the second half that expanded the lead to 38-22 and forced Seton Hall to call timeout. Vincent Iwuchukwu hit two free throws and Collier had a steal and a slam dunk for a 20-point lead before Seton Hall got its first points of the half. Seton Hall cut the game to 3 with 4:04 remaining on a layup by Kadary Richmond, who led Seton Hall with 18 points. Oziyah Sellers responded with a 3-pointer with 3:43 remaining and the Pirates got no closer than 4 points the rest of the way. USC held Seton Hall to 35.2 percent shooting, while making 44.4 percent of its own shots. Coller added 15 points and Kobe Johnson had 13. Morgan had 9 of his school-recoord 10 blocks in the second half.

Rady Children's Invitational

Otega Oweh tipped in a missed shot with 1.4 seconds left to lift Oklahoma to a 72-70 win in the Rady Children's Invitational championship game on Nov. 24. USC erased a 6-point deficit over the final 4:02 to tie at at 70-all when DJ Rodman hit a pair of free throws with 27.9 seconds left. Oklahoma's Javian McCollum, who was named tournament MVP, launched a highly contested 3-pointer which bounced off the rim and was ticked in by Oweh who raced in from the baseline. USC led 39-36 at the break and surged to an 8-point lead 1:20 into the second half as Boogie Ellis, who finished with 16 points and was named to the All-Tournament team, hit a 3-pointer and another jumper to make it 44-36. Oklahoma responded with a 10-3 run. With USC up 56-53 with 13:12 remaining, the Trojans scored only one basket over the next 8 minutes to fall behind 58-64. USC still trailed by 4 points with 2 minutes remaining, but a pair of free throws by Ellis and Rodman tied the game a 70-all. Oklahoma made 50 percent of its shots, just the third team in the last 2 seasons to shoot 50 percent or more against the Trojan defense. The Sooners also made 10 of 22 3-pointers (45.5 percent), including a 4-for-4 effort from back-up center John Hugley IV.

Los Angeles, Calif.

Boogie Ellis scored 28 points, hitting a career-high eight 3-pointers, and USC routed Eastern Washington 106-78 on Nov. 29. The 106 points were the most by USC in a game since defeating Bradley 107-92 on Nov. 17, 2000. Ellis was 8 of 10 from 3-point range, tied for the fourth-most makes from beyond the arc by a Trojan in a game all-time. Isaiah Collier added 15 points despite four fouls as one of five Trojans in double figures. The Eagles were led by Jake Kyman with 25 points, including seven 3-pointers made. The Trojans stretched their lead to 31 points to start the second half when Ellis made three 3-pointers. The Trojans built their largest lead of the first half, 44-22, with a 19-3 run that included 13 straight points. Six different players scored, led by Vincent Iwuchukwu with 7 points, including 2 dunks. USC led 52-33 at the break after shooting 63% from the floor. The 52 first-half points were the team's most since also scoring 52 before the break vs. CSUN on Nov. 9, 2021. The 28-point winning margin and 57.1 field goal percentage were USC's best since making 58.9 percent of its shots and winning 97-60 vs. California on Feb. 16, 2023. USC had 24 assists on its 36 baskets and made 12 of 24 3-point attempts in the game.

Dec. 10 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC squandered a 15-point halftime lead and fell 84-79 in overtime to Long Beach State before a sellout crowd at the Galen Center, spoiling the collegiate debut of Bronny James. With his father LeBron and the entire James family and a jam-packed crowd of local and national media in attendance, Bronny James scored 4 points, had 3 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 steals and a block in his first game since a cardiac arrest on July 24. USC led 45-30 at halftime and still by 10 points at 56-46 with 13:10 remaining, but LBSU went on a 12-3 run to cut it to 59-58 with just under 10 minutes remaining. Neither team had more than a one-possession lead until USC took a 69-64 lead with 5:56 left after a Boogie Ellis 3-pointer and a layup by Kobe Johnson. LBSU finished regulation on a 10-5 run to force OT. James had a steal and made 1 of 2 FTs to give USC a 2-point lead with 21 seconds left in regulation, but LBSU's Marcus Tsohonis, who scored a game-high 28 points, hit a tough jumper in the paint to tie the game at 74 with 3.9 seconds left. LBSU outscored USC 10-5 in OT to secure the win. USC made only 40.6 percent of its shots and 55.6 from the free throw line, missing 16 shots from the charity stripe. Isaiah Collier and Vincent Iwuchukwu led USC with 15 points and Ellis added 14. There were 47 fouls called in the choppy game.

Dec. 17 • Neville Arena
Auburn, Ala.

Boogie Ellis scored 22 points, but it wasn't enough as USC fell 91-75 at Auburn in the Trojans' first true road game of the season. It was Auburn's 43rd consecutive sellout and 49th straight win at home over a nonconference opponent. Isaiah Collier scored 13 points on 4-of-8 shooting with three assists before fouling out in 18 minutes. The Trojans went up 9-6 to open the game courtesy of Collier's seven quick points, but the Tigers (broke out on a 26-7 run that all but put the game away at 32-16. USC cut it to 8 points at 43-35 with 1:33 left in the first half, but missed 3 consecutive shots while Auburn hit a pair of 3's for a 49-35 lead at the break. USC got no closer that 12 points in the second half. Oziyah Sellers added 13 points off the bench for USC. Auburn made 47.5 percent of its shots, while USC made 35.7 percent of its field goal attempts. USC committed 15 turnovers and were outscored 19-5 on points off turnovers. There were 22 fouls called on each team which led to 58 free throws being taken and a 2 hour, 23 minute length of game. Five Tigers scored in double figures, led by Aden Holloway with 15 points scored. Auburn scored a 2023-24 opponent high 91 points.

Dec. 19 • Dunne-Oliver Acadome
Montgomery, Ala.

USC jumped out to an 8-0 lead and never looked back in a 79-59 win at Alabama State on Dec. 19, snapping its first regular season 3-game losing streak since 2020. Ten of USC's 11 players to play in the first half scored, as the Trojans raced out to a 39-18 lead at halftime. In all, the 11 scholarship players all scored, led by 12 points from Arrinten Page and 11 apiece by Kobe Johnson and Isaiah Collier. Leading scorer Boogie Ellis suffered a left hip contusion in the first half, limiting him to 2 first-half points. He did not return after the break. USC made 40.0 percent of its shots and held the Hornets to 32.9 percent shooting. USC made 10 3-pointers, its most since making 12 in its last win vs. Eastern Washington on Nov. 29. USC grabbed a season-high 52 rebounds, its most since recording 58 at Arizona State on Feb. 3, 2022. DJ Rodman had 10 rebounds and scored 5 points for the Trojans. Bronny James scored all 6 of his points in the second half and added 3 rebounds, an assist and a steal. Joshua Morgan scored 7 points, had 7 rebounds and 4 blocks. ASU's Antonio Madlock led all scorers with 17 points. USC held the Hornets to 21.2 percent shooting in the first half, including 18.2 percent from 3-point range. Ten different Trojans scored at least 5 points.

Dec. 28 • Matthew Knight Arena
Eugene, Ore..

USC made a strong second-half comeback from a 17-point halftime deficit, but fell 82-74 at Oregon on Dec. 28 to begin Pac-12 play. USC got as close as 4 points back at 78-74 after a Boogie Ellis 3-pointer with 39 seconds left, but Oregon went 4-for-4 from the free throw line to close it out. Joshua Morgan scored all 14 of his points in the second half to lead the comeback and tied for team-high honors with DJ Rodman, who also netted 14. Kwame Evans Jr. had a career-high 22 points with 8 rebounds and 5 steals, and fellow freshman Jackson Shelstad scored a season-high 21 points to lead Oregon. USC had a sluggish first half, but only trailed 12-8 six minutes into the game, but then Oregon ended the half on a 30-17 run to open a 42-25 lead at the half. USC had 10 first-half turnovers and was outscored 14-4 on points off turnovers to held lead to the deficit. USC also only had 2 points in the first half, but outscored Oregon 30-14 on points in the paint in the second half to help get back into the game. Ellis and isaiah Collier added 11 points each for the Trojans. Kobe Johnson scored 7 points and had a career-high 9 assists. USC had 14 assists and 3 turnovers in the second half. Oregon outscored USC 26-10 from the free throw line, 18-3 in the second half.

Dec. 30 • Gill Coliseum
Corvallis, Ore..

The first half featured six lead changes and four ties, but Oregon State made 8 consecutive shots late in the first half to pull away and cruised to a 86-70 win over USC at Gill Coliseum on Dec. 30. After the game was tied at 22-all with 7:33 remaining in the first half, the Beavers finished with a 17-8 run before the break, then opened the second half on an 11-0 run to open up a 50-30 lead. USC responded with a 9-0 run, but Oregon State answered with 8 consecutive points to put the game away. USC cut the lead to 71-61 with 3:43 remaining, but got no closer. Oregon State shredded USC's defense, hitting 59.6 percent of its shots, the highest shooting percentage by a USC opponent since Washington made 67.3 percent of its field goals against USC on Dec. 29, 2017. Boogie Ellis scored 20 points and Bronny James added 15 points to lead USC. The Trojans made 50.9 percent of its shots and connected on 10 3-pointers, but were out-rebounded 28-18 and committed 20 turnovers. USC was called for 27 fouls and was outscored 22-6 from the free throw line. The loss dropped USC to 0-2 to begin conference play for the first time since also starting 0-2 in the 2015 season. OSU's Tyler Bilodeau led all scorers with a career-high 26 points.

Boogie Ellis led all Trojans in scoring with 15 points as USC defeated California 82-74 at Galen Center on Jan. 3. Ellis also matched career highs with 8 rebounds and 7 assists. USC recorded an assist on its first 19 baskets and finished with 29 assists, one off the school record of 30 set vs. Oklahoma State in 1975. Isaiah Collier scored 13 points and had 7 assists without a turnover. Kobe Johnson matched a career best with 4 3-pointers made and totaled 14 points and 5 assists. DJ Rodman added 11 points and Bronny James 10, to give the Trojans 5 players in double figures. USC broke away from a close start to the game with a 15-3 run to end the first half with a 37-29 lead. USC led comfortably for most of the second half and led by 17 at 61-44, but Cal would not go away and used a late 19-9 run to cut it to 78-74 with 30 seconds remaining, but Harrison Hornery and James each hit a pair of free throws to close it out. USC made 53.2 percent of its field goals and California made 45.9 percent. USC made 11 of 28 3-pointers (39.3 percent) and California 12 of 31 (38.7 percent). The win was USC's 11th consecutive over the Golden Bears. Cal's Jaylon Tyson led all scorers with 23 points.

Isaiah Collier (25), Boogie Ellis (22) and Kobe Johnson (21) all scored over 20 points as the Trojans defeated Stanford 93-79 at Galen Center on Jan. 6. It was the first time USC has 3 players score 20 or more points in the same game since March 18, 2018 vs. UNC Asheville (McLaughlin, Rakocevic and Stewart). Johnson scored 21 points, had 5 rebounds, 5 assists, 5 steals and no tunovers. He became the only Trojan since 1996 to register a stat line like that, and only the second NCAA player this season with a line like that. Collier scored a season-high 26 points and Ellis added 22. The Trojans made 14 3-pointers, their most since also netting 14 vs. California on Jan. 16, 2020. The game was close throughout and after Stanford scored 10 straight points to tie the game at 61-all with 9:46 remaining, USC finished the game on a 32-18 run. Collier, Ellis and Johnson took over from that point, combining for 28 of the Trojans' final 32 points to pull away. Both teams scorched the nets all day with Stanford making 52.7 percent of its shots, including 59.1 percent from 3-point range, while USC made 47.8 percent of its FGs, including 56.0 percent from beyond the arc. USC had 18 assists and 6 turnovers. The Trojans also forced 13 turnovers and outscored Stanford 25-10 on points off turnovers.

Boogie Ellis scored 18 points, but it wasn't enough as USC fell to Washington State, 72-64, at the Galen Center on Jan. 10. The game featured 19 lead changes and 9 ties, but after USC had taken a 64-63 lead on a 3-pointer by Harrison Hornery with 2:16 remaining, WSU scored the final 9 points to secure the victory. USC missed its final 5 shots and 2 front ends of 1-and-1s in the last 2 minutes. Isaiah Collier had 12 points on 5-of-9 shooting with three rebounds, but checked out of the game with 12:12 remaining with a right hand contusion and did not return. The Trojans also missed starting forward Joshua Morgan due to an upper respiratory illness and Ellis played with a hamstring issue. The Trojans made only 6 of their first 26 shot and finished with 32.3 percent shooting in the first half to trail 29-28 at the break. USC shot better from the field in the second half and regained the lead when Ellis hit a 3-pointer at the 10:01 mark, sparking a tight battle between the two teams that saw 10 lead changes in the final 10 minutes. Isaiah Jones scored a game-high 26 points for WSU, making 12 of 15 FTs, 11 in the second half. USC's DJ Rodman scored eight second-half points against his former team. USC had its 7-game home winning streak against WSU snapped, last losing to the Cougars at Galen in 2015.

Oziyah Sellers scored a career-high 18 points off the bench, but it wasn't enough as a short-handed USC fell at Colorado, 68-58 on Jan. 13. The Trojans were without three starters in Boogie Ellis (hamstring), Isaiah Collier (hand) and Joshua Morgan (illness) and were forced to go deep in their rotation. In the first half it looked like it would be no problem, as the Trojans led 37-24 at the break after shooing 46.9 percent and holding Colorado to 31.0 percent. Sellers tied his previous career high of 16 before halftime, but was held to 2 points in the second half. Colorado quickly took control in the second half, going on a 12-2 run the first 4 minutes after halftime to cut USC's lead to 39-36. Colorado took its first lead at 46-45 with 10:34 remaining when Luke O'Brien hit a three-pointer from the corner and never trailed again, outscoring USC 25-13 in the second half of the second half. DJ Rodman and Vincent Iwuchukwu each scored 10 points. Bronny James made his first start of the season and was 0-for-7 in a season-high 25 minutes. Despite the 10-point loss, USC led for 26 of the game's 40 minutes and led by 16 points with 8:42 remaining in the first half when Sellers led the Trojans on a 19-2 run. at halftime. USC had 10 turnovers in the second half and shot 24.1 percent afer the break.

Jan. 17 • McKale Center
Tucson, Ariz.

USC fell behind by 10 points almost immediately and trailed wire-to-wire in an 82-67 loss at No. 12 Arizona on Jan. 17. Arizona jumped out to a 14-4 lead 3 and a half minutes into the game and USC would struggle in mounting a comeback without its two leading scorers Boogie Ellis and Isaiah Collier out due to injuries, in a place the Wildcats had won 40 of their last 42 games. USC closed the gap to 38-34 with 2:27 remaining in the first half after a Kobe Johnson 3-pointer, but Arizona responded with a 7-1 run to closeout the first half with a 45-35 lead. USC cut the lead to 9 early in the second half, but the lead remained 10 or more the rest of the way, swelling to 19 with 6:15 remaining. Oziyah Sellers hit back-to-back 3-pointers with just over 2 minutes left to cut the game to 77-67 with 2:10 remaining, but Arizona held on for what was their closest home game to date this season. USC held Arizona to 40.0 percent shooting, but the Trojans were outrebounded 47-38, including surrendering 21 offensive boards. USC was also called for 24 fouls, compared to Arizona's 12. DJ Rodman led four Trojans in double figures with 16 points, followed by Johnson with 12, Bronny James with 11 and Sellers with 10. UofA's Caleb Love scored a game-high 20 points. USC outshot Arizona 42.6-40.0 and fell to 7-1 this season when outshooting its opponent.

Vincent Iwuchukwu scored 14 points and had 12 rebounds for his first career double-double, but it wasn't enough as USC fell 82-67 at Arizona State on Jan. 20. The Trojans outshot ASU 46.6 percent to 42.9 percent and outrebounded the Sun Devils 44-34, but couldn't overcome its 22 turnovers which led to 24 ASU points. USC led 31-23 with 6:41 left in the first half, but Arizona State finished the half on a 20-5 run, including an 8-0 run in the final 1:40 of the half, to surge to a 43-36 halftime lead. A Josh Morgan layup with 10:55 cut the lead to 56-53, but ASU responded with a 26-9 run to put the game away. Kobe Bryant scored 13 points and DJ Rodman added 8 points and 8 rebounds. Jose Perez led four Sun Devils in double figures with 20 points scored. The Trojans again played without its leading scorers and ballhandlers Boogie Ellis and Isaiah Collier. After making 53.6 percent of its first-half shots, USC made only 40 percent in the second half, including going 0-for-8 from 3-point range.

Oziyah Sellers scored 10 points on a perfect 3-of-3 shooting from the field, but it wasn't enough as USC men's basketball fell to UCLA, 65-60 on Jan. 27. The loss extended the Trojans' skid to 5 games, its longest since the 2015 season when it lost 9 straight. It also snapped USC's 5-game winning streak at the Galen Center against UCLA. The game saw the return of captain Boogie Ellis, who missed the last 3 games due to injury, and he scored 8 of USC's first 10 points. The Trojans opened up a 22-15 lead with 7:29 remaining in the first half, but UCLA closed the half on a 22-4 run to forge a 37-26 halfime lead and they never trailed again. The Bruins dominated the Trojans in the paint, winning the rebounding battle 41-29, including grabbing 15 offenseive recbounds. UCLA outscored USC 22-14 on points in the paint and 17-4 on second-chance points. USC shot 35.4 percent from the field, while holding UCLA to 35.7 percent. UCLA also outscored USC by eight points at the free throw line. The 50 points scored by USC were its fewest in a game since a 72-40 loss at Washington on Jan. 5, 2020. It was also USC's fewest points against UCLA since falling 55-40 on March 7, 2012 in the conference tournament. UCLA's Dylan Andrews scored a game-high 20 points.

Boogie Ellis scored 17 points, but it wasn't enough as USC fell to Oregon, 78-69, at Galen Center on Feb. 1. The loss extended USCs'' losing streak to 6 games.Oziyah Sellers scored 12 points on 5-of-9 shooting for the Trojans. Arrinten Page had 8 points and 4 blocks in his second career start. Joshua Morgan had 6 points, 5 rebounds, 4 assist and 4 blocks. Page and Morgan became the first pair of Trojans to register 4 blocks in the same game since Alex Stepheson and Nikola Vucevic each had 4 on Dec, 11, 2010 vs. NAU. Bronny James dished 7 assists and had 6 points..Jackson Shelstad, who scored 21 points in the first meeting between USC and Oregon on Dec. 28, notched 10 of the Ducks' first 11 points that gave the visitors an early edge and finished with 20. The Trojans slowly reduced the lead and eventually tied the game with 4:39 remaining in the first half, but Oregon broke out on a 9-2 run before the buzzer. Oregon slowly built its lead to 18 points with 4:30 left in the game. Page had 2 dunks that sparked a 13-2 run in the final four minutes of the game that USC within 7 points. Ellis stole an inbounds pass with 49 seconds remaining that could have further threatened the Ducks' lead, but USC missed 4 straight shots on a frenetic possession that effectively ended the comeback bid. USC's 14 blocks tied a school record, also done vs. Pepperdine on Dec.11, 2016.

DJ Rodman posted a 12-point, 14-rebound double-double as USC snapped a 6-game losing streak with an 82-54 win over Oregon State at Galen Center on Feb. 3. The 54 points allowed were a Trojan opponent low this season. After falling being 5-2 to start the game, USC went on a 20-6 run to take a 22-11 lead and never trailed again, leading by as many as 33 points in the second half. USC made 49.2 percent of its shots, while holding OSU to 34.6 shooting. USC had 22 assists on its 30 baskets and improved to 22-2 over the last 5 seasons when registering 20 or more assists. Bronny James had a game-high 6 assists and finished with 9 points. Harrison Hornery led USC with 14 points, scoring 12 consecutive points in a 5-minute stretch midway through the second half. Oziyah Sellers and Kijani added 12 points each for the Trojans. USC outrebounded OSU 44-24, its biggest rebound edge since outrebounding ASU by 25 on Jan. 24, 2022. USC outscored OSU 40-16 on points in the paint, 25-11 on second-chance points and 47-16 on points off the bench. Reigning Pac-12 Player of the Week and National Player of the Week Jordan Pope was held to 14 points on just 4 shots.

USC overcame a 16-point second half deficit to force overtime, but fell 83-77 at California on Feb. 7. Isaiah Collier, in his first game back since sustaining a hand injury on Jan. 10, scored 20 points to lead the comeback, all in the second half and overtime. He scored 14 of USC's final 20 points in regulation and hit a FT with 27 seconds left to tie the game at 67-all, but missed the second one and Cal missed a shot at the buzzer to send it to overtime. In overtime, Cal made 2 of 3 3-pointers and 8 of 10 FTs to secure the win, outscoring USC 16-10 in OT. USC held Cal to 41.4 percent shooting, but the Bears made 11 of 26 3-pointers (42.3 percent), several at the end of the shot clock. USC outscored Cal 13-6 in the final 5 minutes of the game, but the Bears had end of shot clock 3-pointers by Jaylon Tyson and Jalen Celestine to offset the Trojan run. Tyson scored a game-high 27 points, 19 after the break. USC made 43.8 percent of its shots, but was outrebouned 54-27 in the game, including 19-5 on the offensive glass. DJ Rodman added 17 points for USC. Jalen Cone scored 20 and Fardaws Aimaq had 15 points and 20 rebounds for California which had its first sellout since Jan. 29, 2017. Cal scored the final 6 points of the first half to lead 42-31 at the break.

Isaiah Collier scored a career-high 31 points to lead USC to an 82-75 road win at Washington on March 2. Collier's point total was the most by a USC freshman since Onyeka Okongwu scored 33 vs. Pepperdine on Nov. 19, 2019. USC led for 36.44 in the game, but Washington kept rallying. The Trojans led 71-56 at the 6:11 mark, but UW utilizing its second 9-0 run of the game to cut it to 71-65 at the 4:08 mark. Vincent Iwuchukwu hit one free throw, then the Huskies' Koren Johnson hit a three-pointer to cut the lead to 72-68. Collier took over from there scoring USC's next 8 points and DJ Rodman, who matched a season high with 17 points, finished off the scoring for USC with a pair of FTs. USC held Washington to 36.4 shooting in the second half and 41.7 percent for the game, while the Trojans made 54.4 percent of their shots, their best since making a season-best 57.1 percent of its shots vs. EWU on Nov. 29. Boogie Ellis added 17 points and Kobe Johnson stuffed the stat line with 6 points, 5 assists, 4 steals, while tying his career high with a game-high 9 rebounds. USC outrebounded UW 30-29 and outscored them 38-22 on points in the paint. USC ran its winning streak over Washington to 8 games.

Boogie Ellis scored 20 of his 28 points in the second half and hit 6 of 8 from 3-point range to help USC defeat Arizona State 81-73 on March 7. Ellis made 8 of 12 overall and went 4 for 4 from behind the arc in the second half. USC won back-to-back games - tied for its longest win streak of the season - for the fourth time. Kobe Johnson added 15 points for DJ Rodman scored 11 for the Trojans. Jose Perez scored 19 of his 25 points in the second half for Arizona State. Adam Miller scored 18oints and Frankie Collins added 11, six assists and four steals. Shawn Phillips Jr. scored five consecutive points, capped by a dunk that gave ASU a 51-49 lead with 11:45 to play but Ellis hit three 3-pointers - and Oziyah Sellers made another - in a 12-2 run that made it 61-53 with 8:54 left and the Trojans led the rest of the way. The Sun Devils shot 50 percent from the field and 22 of 30 from the FT line but made just 3 of 18 from behind the arc (18.8 percent), to match a USC opponent season low. USC shot 45.8 percent from the floor and won for the second time this season when being outshot (2-12). USC also made 12 of 24 from 3-point range, its most makes from beyond the arc since making 14 3-pointers vs. Stanford on Jan. 6. USC won its eighth consecutive home game against ASU.

DJ Rodman and Kobe Johnson scored 19 points each and USC defeated No. 5 Arizona 78-65 on March 9 for the Trojans' first 3-game winning streak of the season. It was USC's first win over a top 5 team since winning at No. 4 UCLA on Jan. 19, 2008. USC held the Pac-12 regular season champion to a season-low 65 points and to 38.7 percent shooting, its second lowest percentage of the season. USC trailed by as many as 5 points in the first half and by one point with 1:35 remaining in the half, but a pair of FTs by Johnson ad a Bronny James 3-pointer with 4.5 seconds remaining before the break gave the Trojans a 34-30 halftime lead and Arizona got no closer than 3 points in the second half. The Trojans closed the game on an 11-6 run, limiting Arizona to just 3 FGs in the final 3 minutes. Collier had the crowd in a tizzy with a one-handed jam and Joshua Morgan followed with a slam of his own. USC's 15 steals were its most in a game since getting 15 steals vs. Washington on March 8, 2017. It is also USC's most steals in a game vs. a top 5 team on record. USC's starting guards outscored Arizona's starting guards 40-12. UofA's leading scorer Caleb Love was held to 2 points, the first points of the game. Oumar Ballo and Keshad Johnson led Arizona with 17 points each.

Boogie Ellis scored 25 points to eclipse 2,000 for his career and No. 9 seed USC survived two late turnovers to pull out an 80-74 win over No. 8 seed Washington in the opening game of the Pac-12 Tournament on March 13. There were 10 lead changes and 8 ties in the game. After the Huskies failed to capitalize on the giveaways, Ellis got free for a breakaway dunk for a 74-67 lead with 40.7 to play. Washington got a quick basket after that and another after Isaiah Collier made two free throws and it was 76-71 with 27 seconds to go. USC forward Joshua Morgan found Kobe Johnson for a layup with 14 to go but the Huskies got a three-point play from Sahvir Wheeler with nine seconds left. Bronny James iced the game with two free throws at 8.9 seconds. The game was tied at 65-all with 3:29 remaining when Bronny James was fouled on a 3-pointer. He hit all 3 FTs and USC led the rest of the way. Johnson had 14 points with 8 rebounds and Collier scored 13 with 7 assists. Wheeler led UW with 20 poins and 7 assists. Washington led 42-37 at the break after a Moses Wood long offbalance 3-pointer. USC ran its winning streak to 9 in-a-row against Washington and its seasonbest winning streak to 4 games. USC held UW to 34.5 percent shooting in the 2nd half.

Pac-12 Tournament

Kobe Johnson scored 14 points as Arizona avenged a loss to the Trojans five days prior with a 70-49 victory for the Wildcats in the Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinals. USC had a four-game winning streak prior to this loss. KJ Lewis led the way for the Wildcats, scoring 15 points and adding six rebounds. Oumar Ballo recorded his 17th double-double of the season with 10 points and 13 rebounds. Arizona started the game off hot, holding a 28-16 lead following a 12-2 run in the first half. USC was not able to score in the final 5:49 of the first half. The Wildcats scored 32 bench points, while the Trojans only scored 3 points from the bench. Arizona had its biggest lead at 24 points. The Wildcats held the Trojans to 36% from the field and 27% from three-point range. Arizona made nearly 43% of their three-point attempts in the first half. USC committed 18 total turnovers, while the Wildcats only committed 14 turnovers. Johnson grabbed a team-high 8 rebounds in the loss. Isaiah Collier added 13 points but turned the ball over six times in his 37 minutes of play. The Trojans only made three free throws during the entire contest.

USC • History

Jordan McLaughlin was a three-year captain for the Trojans who finished his career as the school's all-time leader in minutes played, second in assists, third in steals and games played, fourth in points and fifth in three-point baskets. He is one of three Pac-12 players to register 700 or more assists and 1,600 or more points in a career.

USC BASKETBALL HISTORY

First thoughts of USC Athletics tradition often gravitate toward the gridiron, the white sweaters of the song leaders and the Spirit of Troy, USC's indomitable marching band.

But flash to the hardcourt, where the tradition is also quite storied and you can still find the same white sweaters and the same inspiring fight songs. The only thing missing is Traveler, USC's regal white horse, but he likes it better on grass anyway.

USC's men's basketball program has a long and decorated tradition in Los Angeles, the original Southern California powerhouse.

The Trojans started playing basketball in 1907 and have compiled a record of 1,712-1,262 (.575)*, winning 14 league championships and one conference tournament title.

By the 1920s, USC established itself as the top team in Los Angeles and won its first Pacific Coast Southern Division League title in 1928. It began a run of 10 league titles in 16 years including a string of five in a row from 1932-36.

Among the early standouts at Troy were future Hall of Famers Jack Gardner and Sam Barry. Gardner played for Barry from 1930-32 but went on to become the only coach in history to lead two schools to the Final Four twice each (Kansas State in 1948 and 1951 and Utah in 1961 and 1966). Barry is USC's all-time winningest coach.

It was in this era when USC ran off a remarkable 42 consecutive wins over rival UCLA from 1932-42, by far the greatest streak in the series.

Two of the game's giants came through in the late 1940s in Tex Winter and Bill Sharman. Winter, who coached collegiately and in the pros for more than 55 years, lettered for the Trojans in 1947 and later received a bit of attention for a little offense he designed in the shape of a triangle.

USC and NBA great Paul Westphal

Sharman was an All-American at USC as a senior in 1950 before becoming a standout player and coach in the NBA. Known as "Bullseye Bill" for his marksmanship at the foul line – a true weapon in the days when every foul resulted in a foul shot – Sharman spent 10 years with the Boston Celtics, winning four NBA titles and going to eight All-Star games. He later went on to coach the Los Angeles Lakers to their first title in 1972 and was a long-time executive with the club.

USC remained formidable during the 1950s and 1960s, the latter decade featuring Trojan stalwart John Rudometkin, whose 18.8 scoring average remains second all-time at Troy for players who played more than one season.

USC surged in the 1970s under coach Bob Boyd. In fact, Boyd led the Trojans to their greatest regular season record ever, a 24-2 mark in 1971 on a team that included the great Paul Westphal. USC won 24 games again in 1974 (featuring the talented Gus Williams) and won 20 in Boyd's final year in 1979.

Stan Morrison and George Raveling followed Boyd with Raveling returning the Trojans to prominence in the early 1990s thanks in large part to the school's all-time leading scorer, Harold Miner.

Miner was named Sports Illustrated's Player of the Year in 1992, leading USC to a 24-6 record and a school-best No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Former UCLA great Henry Bibby took over the USC program in 1997 and kept USC among the top teams in the West.

Included in Bibby's three NCAA Tournament teams was a breakthrough 2001 Elite Eight team, marking the Trojans' furthest foray in the Big Dance in the tournament's current format. Only eventual champion Duke was able to slow the Trojans down.

Bob Boyd and Don Carfino

That 2001 team featured NBA draftees Brian Scalabrine, Jeff Trepagnier and Sam Clancy. The Trojans returned to the NCAAs again in 2002, but were a first-round upset victim in overtime to UNC-Wilmington.

The Trojans struggled over the next few years until Tim Floyd became the new coach for the 2005-06 season. He turned the team around immediately going 17-13 in his first season and guiding the 2006-07 Trojans to a school-record 25 wins (25-12). The 2006-07 Trojans were selected to play in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2001-02 season and advanced to the Sweet 16, led by first team All-Pac-10 junior swingman Nick Young, who was then taken in the first round of the NBA draft by Washington.

USC again reached the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 with a 21-12 record behind freshman O.J. Mayo, who following the season became USC's highest-ever drafted player when he taken with the third pick in the NBA draft. The Trojans went 22-13 in 2008-09, captured their first Pac-10 Tournament title by defeating NCAA-bound California, UCLA and Arizona State, then joined them in the Big Dance where they fell in the second round to NCAA runner-up Michigan State. Following the season, DeMar DeRozan (No. 9) and Taj Gibson (No. 26) were both first-round draft picks, marking the first time in school history USC had two players selected in the first round. Further demonstration as to how far the program has risen is the fact that the Trojans were the only program with a top 16 pick in each of the three drafts from 2007-09. Kevin O'Neill took over the program for the 2010 season and was able to guide the team to a 16-14 record and in the thick of the Pac-10 Conference race until the final weeks despite a self-imposed postseason ban.

USC's 3rd all-time scorer and 2nd all-time rebounder Sam Clancy

In 2011 USC had to replace 4 of its top 6 scorers from the previous season, had a starter play with a fracture in his hand for half the season and the starting point guard ineligible for the first 10 games, but hung tough. They advanced to the Pac-10 Tournament semifinals and then on to the NCAA Tournament once again, where they fell to eventual Final Four participant VCU. The 2012 season had high hopes, but after a series of injuries, the depleted Trojans limped in with a record of 6-26, then followed that up with a 14-18 season and were eager for the next chapter in Trojan history to begin.

The Trojans announced on April 1, 2013 that Andy Enfield was taking over as head coach. Coming off a magical run with Florida Gulf Coast in 2013 when he led the first No. 15 seed in the NCAA Tournament to the Sweet 16, the Trojans turned the reigns over to Enfield. He and his staff have recruited well and have built a strong foundation of young players and there is a tangible buzz about the future of the program. In just his third season he led the Trojans to the 2016 NCAA Tournament, its first postseason game since 2011, and to three convincing victories over crosstown rival UCLA. USC also entered the national rankings during the 2016 season, its first time in the top 25 since 2008. USC continued its upward ascent by posting a 23-9 record during the 2016-17 regular season, its most regular season wins since 1992. USC went on to win a school-record 26 games (26-10) and won two NCAA Tournament games. In 2017-18, USC went 24-12 and placed second in the conference, its highest Pac-12 finish since tying for second in 2002. USC had a 22-9 record and strong finish in 2019-20, but the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Behind Pac-12 Player, Defenseive Player and Freshman of the Year Evan Mobley the 2020-21 Trojans went 25-8 and advanced to the fourth Elite Eight in school history, where they fell to overall No. 1 Gonzaga. In 2021-22, USC set the school regular season win total with 25 and finished the regular season ranked No. 22 and tied the school overall wins record with 26 (26-8). USC went 22-11 and tied for second in the Pac-12 during the 2022-23 season and earned a No. 10 seed in the NCAA Tournament. USC's 182 wins from 2016-23 are the 14th-most among the Power 6 teams during that period and its 95 wins during that span are tied for sixth-most among Power 6 teams.

The Eric Musselman era officially began on April 4, 2024, as the former Arkansas head coach assumed the position of USC Men's Basketball head coach. Musselman was 111-59 at the helm for the Razorbacks, and led the Hogs to three straight Sweet 16 berths, including a pair of Elite 8 appearances.

 Not including 21 wins & 1 loss vacated in the 2007-08 season due to NCAA penalty (original all-time record:1,694-1,230 (.579).  21 wins and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised 2007-08 record: 0-11).*

First Game At The Galen Center - South Carolina 80, USC 74 (OT) on November 16, 2006

LOS ANGELES (AP) -Tre Kelley scored 11 of his 26 points in overtime and Blake Sheldon added a career-high 22 points, helping South Carolina defeat Southern California 80-74 Thursday and spoil the Trojans' season opener in their new on-campus arena.

It was an emotional night as the Trojans honored the memory of point guard Ryan Francis, who was killed in a drive-by shooting in May during a visit to his home state of Louisiana. Players wore a black patch with his No. 12 on their jerseys.

After playing in the Los Angeles Sports Arena since 1959, the Trojans' move to the 10,258-seat Galen Center filled about 60 percent of the seats for the first men's game, although the student section was jammed with fans wearing white T-shirts reading "Trojans 12 We Remember" on the front and Francis' number and nickname Franchise on the back. With Paulette Francis looking on after a halftime tribute to her son, the game went into overtime tied at 62.

USC freshman Taj Gibson missed a jumper down low in the closing seconds of regulation. South Carolina got the rebound and Brandis Raley-Ross drove to the basket, tossing up a one-handed layup that missed as time expired. The Gamecocks (2-1) got 17 points from Raley-Ross, including a dunk that forced overtime.

Gibson led four USC players in double figures with 16 before fouling out of his college debut. Nick Young added 15, freshman Daniel Hackett had 13 and Lodrick Stewart 11.

South Carolina dominated the five-minute overtime, taking a 72-65 lead on a 3-pointer and driving layin by Kelley. Stewart's 3-pointer cut USC's deficit to 74-70 with 1:20 left, but the Trojans were forced to foul and South Carolina hit its free throws down the stretch.

The Trojans held themselves together after spending halftime on the court for the tribute to Francis, while the Gamecocks retreated to their locker room. Trailing 34-31, South Carolina scored four in a row to open the second half. USC went on an 11-5 run to regain a 45-40 lead. The game went back and forth the rest of the way, with neither team leading by more than five points.

USC Men's Basketball Olympic History

Chimezie Metu became the fifth Trojan basketball player to compete in the Olympics when he was a member of Nigeria's team at the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo. Metu played in all three games for Nigeria and averaged 9.0 points and 6.7 rebounds. Trojans DeMar DeRozan for Team USA and Dwight Lewis for Venezuela became the third and fourth USC men's basketball players to compete in the sport at the Olympics in 2016. DeRozan earned a gold medal as Team USA cruised to the title in 2016, going undefeated in eight games. He became the first Trojan to play for the U.S. Olympic basketball team and the first to medal. Lewis and Venezuela went 1-4 and did not advance out of pool play. DeRozan and Lewis were teammates at USC during the 2008-09 season and Lewis still is third on USC's all-time games played (133) and second in minutes played (4,069) lists. The first Trojans to compete in men's basketball at the Olympics were Ingo Mendel for West Germany in 1984 and Elias Ayuso for Puerto Rico in 2004.

USC Retired Jerseys

In the first year of the Galen Center, USC honored some of its legendary players as the jersey numbers were retired for Bill Sharman (No. 11) and Paul Westphal (No. 25) for the men's team and Cheryl Miller (No. 31) and Lisa Leslie (No. 33) for the women's team. Sharman had his jersey retired in a halftime ceremony during the USC-UCLA game on Jan. 13, 2007 and Westphal had his retired at the half of the USC-Arizona game on Jan. 18, 2007. The women's uniform numbers were retired on Nov. 10, 2006 at halftime of the USC-Long Beach State women's basketball game. The legendary John Rudometkin had his No. 44 jersey retired at halftime of USC's win vs. Texas on Dec. 5, 2010 and USC's all-time leading scorer Harold Miner had his jersey retired on Jan. 15, 2012. All-American guard Gus Williams had his No. 10 jersery retired on Feb. 4, 2016. Bob Boyd had his No. 19 jersey retired on Jan. 25, 2017. NBA star and Olympic gold medalist DeMar DeRozan had his No. 10 jersey retired on February 13, 2020.

ABA

The American Basketball Association was formed in 1966; it disbanded in 1976, and four of its teams joined the NBA. Below is a list of Trojans selected in the ABA draft. In many instances, round numbers are not available.

YEAR	RND.	PICK	PLAYER	TEAM
1967			Bob Seagren	New Orleans
1968			Bill Hewitt	Denver
1969			Mack Calvin	Los Angeles
			Ron Taylor	Oakland
1971	4		Dennis Layton	Utah

From 2007-11 the Trojans had six players selected in the NBA Draft. Nick Young was selected No. 16 in 2007 and DeMar DeRozan was selected No. 9 in 2009.

USC was the only school in the country with a player selected within the first 16 picks in each of the 2007-09 NBA Drafts. Taj Gibson was selected No. 26 in 2009 and DeMar DeRozan was selected No. 9 in 2009.

MOBLEYS KEEPS IT ROLLING FOR TROJANS...

USC has had eight players selected in the first round since 2007, with Evan Mobley's No. 3 overall selection by Cleveland in the 2021 NBA Draft. Mobley is the fifth Trojan selected in the top 10 of the NBA Draft, joining O.J. Mayo (3rd in 2008), Onyeka Okongwu (6th in 2020), DeMar DeRozan (9th in 2009), Paul Westphal (10th in 1972). His brother Isaiah Mobley was taken in the second round of the 2022 NBA Draft with the 49th pick. During the last six seasons, USC has had six players selected in the NBA Draft, tied for the 13th most by any program in the country. USC is also one of seven schools to have had at least one player selected in five of the last six NBA Drafts.

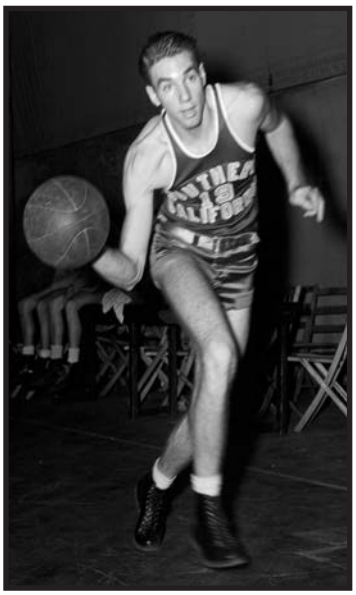
SAM BARRY
(Inducted: Naismith - 1979, NABC - 2006)

Justin "Sam" Barry, USC's winningest coach ever, started out a three-sport star at Madison (Wisc.) High. After a four-year stint at Knox College, Barry coached Iowa for seven seasons, leading the Hawkeyes to the 1923 Big Ten championship and a share of the 1926 title. He then came to Troy, where he stayed for 18 years, leading the Trojans to a 260-138 won-loss record, a mark that included winning the Pacific Coast Conference in 1930, 1935 and 1940. Under Barry, USC won the Southern Division seven times and finished third in the 1940 NCAA tournament. In 1948, Barry led the USC baseball team to the NCAA title, and served as an assistant football coach. On the administrative side, Barry was a leading advocate of the 10-second rule and the elimination of the center jump after each basket.

JACK GARDNER
(Inducted: Naismith -1984, NABC - 2006)

Gardner was a three-year lettermen at USC (1930-32) and was captain his senior year, playing under legendary coach Sam Barry. He learned well from Barry and became one of the most successful college coaches ever. Known as "The Fox", Gardner became the only coach in history to lead two different schools to the Final Four twice each. Gardner achieved this honor by directing both Kansas State (1948 and 1951) and Utah (1961 and 1966) into the Big Dance. In 28 years of coaching at the major college level, Gardner's teams compiled a 486-235 record (67.4 percent). When you combine his 10 years (1933-43) of coaching AAU, high school, junior college and military ball, his record swells to 649-278, an impressive 70 percent winning mark. A proponent of fundamental basketball, Gardner was an expert in fast break hoops.



ALEX HANNUM
(Inducted: Naismith - 1998)

A three-year letterman at USC in 1943, 1946-47, Hannum was a captain his final year with the team. Hannum, who had a knack for turning around beleaguered franchises during 16 professional coaching seasons (12 NBA, four ABA), was the first coach in professional basketball history to win an NBA and ABA Championship. He began his coaching career as a player/coach for the St. Louis Hawks during the 1956-57 season, reaching the NBA Finals. The next year, Hannum began his first season as a full-time head coach and guided St. Louis to the 1958 NBA Championship. He spent three years with the Syracuse Nationals (1960-63), posting a 48-32 record in his final year. Hannum then became coach of a San Francisco Warrior team that had finished fourth in the Western Division the previous year and led them to the NBA Finals. Under Hannum's guidance in San Francisco, Wilt Chamberlain altered his game from offense-oriented to defense-and-team-oriented, a trait that would later help him win an NBA title. Both Hannum and Chamberlain were reunited in Philadelphia in the 1966-67 season, winning the NBA championship with a then-record .840 winning percentage (68-13). Following his stint in Philadelphia, Hannum joined the ABA's Oakland Oaks, turning a last-place team into a title team in 1969. Hannum was named NBA Coach of the Year in 1964 and ABA Coach of the Year in 1969.

GEORGE RAVELING

Raveling was the USC men's basketball head coach from 1987-94 and led the Trojans into the post his last four seasons, making the NCAA Tournament in 1991 and 1992 and playing in the NIT Tournament in 1993 and 1994. His 1992 team, featuring USC's all-time leading scorer Harold Miner, went 24-6 before losing in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Georgia Tech on a three-pointer at the buzzer. Raveling was a star player at Villanova before getting into coaching as an assistant at Maryland. He served as a head coach at USC, Washington State and Iowa, amassing 337 victories and six NCAA tournament appearances. In 1994 Raveling walked away from the coaching profession due to health reasons, but stayed close to basketball as a color commentator for Fox Sports and CBS. He later joined Nike and currently holds the title of Director of International Basketball for Nike. Outside of his tremendous record as a coach at several different stops, Raveling's career was socially significant. He was the first ever African-American head coach in the ACC and the Pac-8 (now Pac-12). Raveling is not only known for making history by breaking down racial barriers as a coach, but also was a part of history when on August 28, 1963 he received the original copy of the Martin Luther King Jr., "I Have a Dream" speech.

BILL SHARMAN

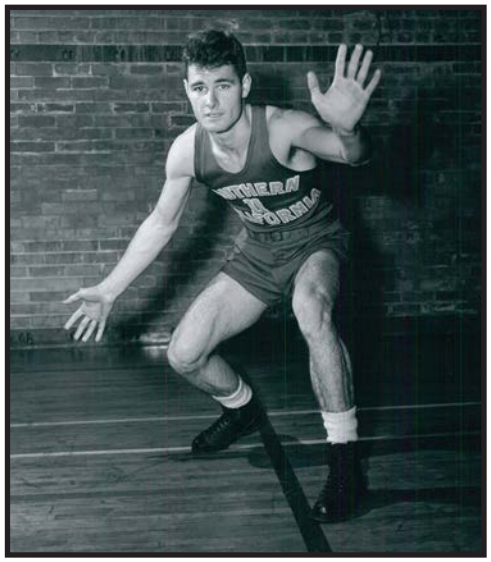
(Inducted: Naismith - 1976 (player), 2004 (coach), NABC - 2006)

Bill Sharman, who brought a disciplined work ethic to basketball with a willingness to spend countless hours in the gymnasium perfecting his skills, was a 15-letter athlete at Porterville (Calif.) High before coming to USC. A four-year letterwinner at Troy (1947-50), Sharman was named All-America in 1950 and was a two-time All-Pacific Coast Conference selection and conference MVP. He's still 21st on USC's all-time scoring list (1,108). Sharman, known as "Bullseye Bill" for his marksmanship at the foul line, played briefly in the Brooklyn Dodger organization before his basketball career took off. Sharman spent 1951 with the NBA's Washington Capitals before they folded. He joined Boston a year later and became a Celtic mainstay. In 10 seasons with the Celtics, Sharman was named All-NBA First Team four times and played in eight All-Star Games, earning MVP honors in the 1955 tilt. Sharman teamed with Bob Cousy to form one of the NBA's most formidable backcourt duos, and the pair landed Boston four NBA championships (1957, 1959, 1960, 1961). He directed the Los Angeles Lakers to their first NBA title in 1972 and was awarded Coach of the Year honors. That season, the Lakers finished with an amazing 69-13 regular season record, including 33 straight victories, both NBA single-season records. By winning titles in the ABL (Cleveland Pipers, 1962), ABA (Utah Stars, 1971), and NBA (Los Angeles Lakers, 1972), Sharman became the first coach to win championships in three different pro leagues. Sharman joins John Wooden and Lenny Wilkens as the only members enshrined as a player and a coach.

PAUL WESTPHAL

(Inducted: Naismith - 2019, NABC - 2018)

A prolific scorer for USC from 1969-72, Paul Westphal averaged 16.4 points over his career – the ninth-highest scoring average in program history. He was a two-time All-Pac-8 First Team selection and received numerous All-America accolades in 1971 and 1972. Westphal followed his collegiate career with a successful run in the NBA. After being drafted No. 10 overall in 1972 by the Boston Celtics, he went on to make five All-Star Teams and four All-NBA Teams, and was a member of the 1974 NBA champion Celtics squad. After finishing his playing career, Westphal held head coaching positions with Southwestern Baptist Bible, Grand Canyon and Pepperdine, along with the NBA's Phoenix Suns, Seattle SuperSonics and Sacramento Kings.



TEX WINTER

(Inducted: Naismith - 2011, NABC - 2010)

USC basketball player and guru of the triangle offense Fred "Tex" Winter played at USC during the 1947 season after a year at Compton College. He earned the first USC Most Inspirational Player Award and his teammates on the 1947 team included Hall of Famers Alex Hannum and Bill Sharman. Winter was also one of the nation's top pole vaulters when he lettered in track at USC in 1946. Winter was a coach and assistant coach for nearly 60 years at the collegiate and NBA levels, gaining his widest acclaim as the architect of the very successful triangle offense which helped the Chicago Bulls and Los Angeles Lakers win nine NBA titles. Winter won six NBA titles as Phil Jackson's lieutenant with the Bulls in the 1990s as well as three more with the Lakers (2000-02). After leaving USC, Winter went on to be an assistant coach at Kansas State (1948-51). He helped lead the Wildcats to three league titles and to the1951 NCAA title game against Kentucky. He earned his first head coaching job at Marquette where he guided the Warriors to a 25-25 record in two seasons. Current USC head coach Kevin O'Neill also got his first Division I NCAA head coaching job at Marquette. Winter then returned to Kansas State as head coach for 15 seasons (1954-68) and guided them to eight league titles and six NCAA Tournament appearances. His Kansas State teams twice reached the Final Four, losing to Seattle and Elgin Baylor in the 1958 semifinals and falling to UCLA and John Wooden in the 1964 semifinals. In 1958 he became the youngest coach in college basketball history to be named UPI Coach of the Year. Winter is a member of several halls of fame, including the USC Athletic Hall of Fame, the Pac-10 Hall of Honor, the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame, and he was awarded the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement from the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In June 2010 he was given the Chuck Daly Lifetime Achievement Award by the NBA Coaches Association.

Media • Information

Press Credentials: Direct all inquiries to Kristen Keller, Associate Athletic Director for Sport Brands and Communications, USC Heritage Hall Room 103, Los Angeles, California 90089-0601. Information about radio and television broadcasting rights can also be obtained from Keller. Media credentials for USC home men's basketball games will not be mailed in advance. Instead, credentials will be available for pick-up on game days at the Galen Center media entrance (located on the Flower Street side of the arena), generally 2 hours before tipoff. Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis (there are no season passes). Credentials must be requested online. Credential requests must be received by 3 p.m. two days prior to each game, so that the USC Sports Brands and Communications office can work with USC's Office of Athletic Compliance to review and approve requests. The online credential request form covers NCAA compliance issues. To request a credential - contact Kristen Keller (kellerk@usc.edu) for the link. (NOTE: Do not use Internet Explorer as your browser; if you get an error message, change browsers or clear the cache). Credentials are non-transferrable. A valid identification that matches the submitted name must be shown and credentials must be picked up in person. At the Galen Center media entrance, media must sign an acknowledgement of the completed online waiver prior to being issued a credential. Photographers must check out a photo vest which will be at an adjacent table and return them to the security check-in desk at the end of the game.

Telephones: Contact ITS at (213) 821-0687 to order phone service at the Galen Center.

Galen Center: The Galen Center (3400 South Figueroa Street) is located approximately 15 miles from Los Angeles International Airport (adjacent to the USC campus). Directions: take Century Blvd. east to I-405 north; exit to I-10 east (toward Los Angeles) to I-110 South; exit Adams Blvd. and turn right onto Figueroa St.; go one mile and the Galen Center will be on your left. Or take I-405 south to I-105 (toward Norwalk) east to I-110 north (toward Pasadena/Los Angeles) and exit at King Blvd.

Media Parking: If you are approved for parking, you will be sent a game-specific parking code which you will supply to the attendant at the booth located at the entrance of Parking Structure 2 between the Galen Center and the USC Hotel. Enter off Figueroa Street. USC does not provide parking passes to NBA scouts.

Media Will Call: "Media Will Call" for Trojan basketball games is located at the admin entrance of Galen Center, located off Figueroa Street.

Media Information: There will be limited printed handouts (game notes, media guides, program, stats, notes and quotes) available. All of this material will be available digitally on the USCTrojans.com website. A link to live in-game stats is available on the men's basketball schedule page on USCTrojans.com.

Post-Game Interviews: USC's post-game locker room is CLOSED, including to the media, in order to comply with NCAA rules that prohibit media interaction contact with recruits who may be present during this time. Head coach Eric Musselman and several players will be brought to the post-game interview room. Additional media interviews will be conducted in the area outside the post-game interview room as coaches and players exit the locker room hallway. USC's sports information staff will work with the media to expedite this process.

USC Practices: Men's basketball practices at USC will be closed to the public and media unless pre-approved for a special occasion. To ensure that USC and its Office of Athletic Compliance know which individuals are coming into the presence of our players, media wishing to attend a USC men's basketball practice must complete a one-time online waiver no later than 2 p.m. on Monday of the week of the first planned visit (contact Kristen Keller in the Sports Information office for the link) in order to allow the Office of Athletic Compliance time to review and approve requests. Also, once initially approved, media do not need to seek permission to attend subsequent practices, as names will remain on the approved list for the rest of the year. USC will practice at the Galen Center on the main floor or in the practice courts (email the USC sports information office for daily practice schedule updates). Media must remain in a designated area of the arena or practice court. USC coaches and players will be available to the media on the court immediately after all practices.

Player Interviews: All requests for player interviews should be directed to Kristen Keller, Associate Athletic Director for Sport Brands and Communications by e-mailing kellerk@usc.edu. Please make your requests at least 48 hours in advance. Media members may interview players in person or by phone after USC's practice sessions or during a class break if possible. No interviews will be granted on the day of a game or prior to practice. Players are instructed not to grant any telephone or face-to-face interviews unless arrangements are made through the USC Sports Information Office.

Coach Interviews: All requests for interviews with Eric Musselman and his staff should be directed to Kristen Keller, Men's Basketball SID (484) 797-0550.

Post Game Services: USC will post online post-game quotes from both head coaches (and players in the event of outstanding individual performances), in addition to post-game notes (for conference games).
